Cupid’s Advice:

Kylie Jenner and Travis Scott have called quits on their celebrity relationship. Jenner and Scott may get back together, but for now, they’ve decided it’s best for both of them to be apart. Cupid has some factors to consider before taking a break:

1. What you want: Consider what you actually want from the break. If you just want to hook up with new people perhaps you should actually break up with your partner. If you need time to rethink or rebalance then communicate with your partner that a break would be the best solution.

2. What the break means: We’ve all seen Friends and no one wants to be the Ross of the breakup. Clearly communicate with your partner exactly what the break will entail. Establish if you’re comfortable with each other sleeping with other people. Basically, don’t do what Ross did to Rachel.

3. How long it will be: How long you need for the break may change as time goes on. However, you and your partner should agree on the approximate length of the break. If it exceeds six months you should consider ending the relationship.
