Cupid's Advice:

It's a hard pill to swallow when you find out that your partner has been having an affair with another person. It's even harder to accept the fact that you have been "replaced". Being upset is a normal emotion to feel at a time like this. However, how do you deal with this realistically? Cupid has some advice on how to deal with your lover's cheating ways:

1. Talk about it: Now, this is easier said than done. If you haven't given your partner a chance to explain him or herself, then you won't really know what's happening. Nobody likes hearing the potential unfaithful person's perspective, but it's important to talk to your partner before you take any further action. It is also important to point out any noticed changes in your love life. Tell your partner that you've notice the change in behavior. This will let them know that you are still paying close attention to them.

2. Go to therapy sessions: If a conversation is not obtainable, please seek professional help. Tell the therapist what's happening and how you feel about this. Your partner should also be willing to attend sessions to take steps to repair your relationship, if that's something you're willing to do. Try to let them tell their side of the story without interrupting. This will be the only way to get them to open up. Also, try to talk about how things were prior to the infidelity. This will help target a sequence of events and a timeline.

3. Don't rush a decision: If you have children, this may affect them as well. Consider them as well when you're deciding how to move forward with your partner. Don't make any hasty decisions. As much as you may want to leave, take some time to think. Your partner's actions may not be justifiable, but choosing a plan of action in the heat of the moment is not a good move. Distance yourself and talk about the important things that involve your children or your household. If there's no repairable solution to fix your relationship, and they are living a separate life, take steps to tell your children what's going on and start filing for a divorce.
