In celebrity news, Kelly Ripa tells Ryan Seacrest he should elope. What are the benefits of eloping instead of having a big wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone wants a big wedding extravaganza. Eloping is an ongoing trend that started with rebellious teenagers and made its way to becoming more popular among all ages. Cupid has some tips and tricks you can use to make your mini wedding one to remember:

1. Take a trip somewhere: Inviting everyone to a vacation spot is not always realistic. It can be costly for your guests, and many of them won't be able to swing it. However, a destination wedding is a great idea if you're eloping. It'll allow you to combine your wedding and honeymoon and spend quality alone time with your partner.

2. Privacy: Your vows may be more meaningful if you exchange them privately. You'll be able to say things to each other that you wouldn't be able to in a room full of people. This is also an ideal time to set realistic goals for the relationship and talk about plans for the future.

3. You can always have a reception: Even though you aren't following tradition when it comes to your wedding, that doesn't mean you have to give up a celebration with family and friends. You can still have your bridesmaids and best men included as well. Don't forget to order the cake!
