In celebrity news, this royal couple is considering a move to Canada. What are some ways to compromise with your partner about where to live?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting serious in a relationship means that you will have to start making choices with and for the benefit of your partner. This may mean considering a relocation for career or family reasons. Cupid has some advice on how to help make the discussion a smoother one:

1. Listen to their reasons: You don't have to be fond of moving to another state or country. It is normal to feel this way. Changing your environment is a huge adjustment, but hear your partner out. Ask them: how will this help us or our family? Weigh the pros and cons, and try to remain reasonable.

2. Let them know your concerns: If you feel that you won't get enough money in the location being discussed for work, tell them this! Also, share your thoughts on cost of living, school systems, and transportation (if needed). Work on focusing on common ground. Show them what you are looking for in a place you want to call your home.

3. Take a trip there: The only way you'll know if you like a new location is if you go there in person. Cruise around and go sightseeing. This will help you become more accustomed to the area. Let your partner show you the city they love through a different perspective.
