Paradise.

In celebrity news, this couple is still engaged and going strong. What are some ways to keep outside parties from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Demi Burnett and Kristian Haggerty finally broke their silence on breakup rumors. Though the celebrity couple is still happily engaged, Brunett revealed that they like to keep their relationship private. Cupid has some relationship advice to help you keep outside parties out of your relationship:

1. Keep it private: The easiest way to keep outside parties out of your relationship is by keeping your relationship on the down-low. This will help you avoid any rumors as people won't have any information to base rumors on. They will also have less content to judge or ask questions about.

2. Answer necessary questions: Sometimes it's difficult to keep a meaningful relationship hidden from those who you love and care about. If your family and friends are inquiring about your relationship or seem to get involved too often, try to soothe their curiosity by answering their questions. However, if you feel as though a question is too invasive, you should not feel as though you must answer it.

3. Tell them to stop: If you've tried several methods to get people off of your back about your relationship and they persist, you should be brutally honest and tell them to stop. Sometimes people only understand when they are blatantly told something. Try not to be rude when you tell them, but be sure to be stern in what you're saying.
