Cupid's Advice:

Planning to move in with each other can be a big step for your relationship. To benefit the needs of your partner or yourself, you may have to relocate. Cupid has some advice on what to consider when choosing a place to live with your partner:

1. Show your partner the places that you like: Start the conversation by explaining the reasons why you like this area. Remember to mention things that they are interested in as well. If they like to go the gym, tell them about the local fitness center down the street.

2. Find a compromise: You won't always agree on everything, but it is important to reach a mutual agreement. Don't assume that they will love everything about the place you want to live. Try to consider the problematic areas: distance from work, school system for your children, and the nearest family member. Don't say that "it will all work out", rather, try to make the transition a little easier.

3. Eliminate the negatives: After reaching a compromise, you'll have to figure out what you want to do about it. Start with the process of elimination. Cross off the things you can do without like going to a coffee shop every day or the daily jog in the nearby park. Look for ways to accommodate these changes.
