another man since she is “high maintenance.”

In celebrity break-up news, things aren't looking promising for Teresa and Joe Giudice. What are some ways to decide whether to call it quits on your marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrity breakups aren't much different than ours. Even though there's fame and money, it doesn't change a lot about the dynamic when it comes to relationships. If you're on the rocks with your partner, and you don't know whether or not you should end the marriage, don't worry! Cupid has some love advice on when it might be a good idea to reevaluate your relationship:

1. No communication: The most important aspect of a relationship is the ability of both parties to be able to communicate with one another. If conversing openly and honestly with your partner has deteriorated, this might be a sign that the marriage needs to be reassessed. This is only if attempts to strengthen the communication has failed before.

2. Lack of respect: Joe dissing his wife Teresa by saying she needs to find another man that can handle her and her “high maintenance” tendencies is a very disrespectful thing to say about your partner. If you're in a marriage that shows levels of disrespect toward one another, your relationship has some layers of toxicity. Sit down and discuss why you're both saying such hateful things about one another, and if you cannot reach common ground, it might be a good idea to start packing your bags.

3. Low affection: This is something that can sometimes be harder to catch if both you and your partner have gotten into a routine that makes this behavior normal. If your marriage has faded into nothing, but low levels of attraction of intimacy, this may indicate a bigger issue. Try to figure out if this problem is fixable, and if it isn't, neither one of you deserves to be in a marriage that doesn't show the other the affection they need.
