Cupid’s Advice:

Establishing your relationship in the public eye is a big step. This means that you are getting serious about your partner. However, sometimes you are unsure if you are ready to be that open with your partner. Cupid has some advice on how to know if your relationship is stable enough to face the public:

1. Take them out to a public setting: Bringing them to a party for a basketball game will determine if they’re ready for the public eye. Don’t pressure them to be lovey-dovey in public. See if this is something that happens naturally.

2. Bring them around the family: The biggest critics have to be your family members. They tend to see the red flags before you do. Notice how your partner interacts with your family. If they are keeping to themselves and don’t hold a conversation with anyone, then maybe they aren’t ready for the next steps.

3. Post a picture on social media: Professing your love on a social media outlet is an ongoing trend for many relationships. Putting their initials in your bio or “my love” as the caption on a picture can be telling ways to show that you are serious about your relationship.
