In celebrity news, Halsey is not pregnant after all. What are some ways to squash pregnancy rumors?

Cupid's Advice:

Having people assume you're pregnant when you're not can be a pain. However, sometimes a picture can make people believe that you might be "showing" or "hiding" something. Cupid has some advice on how to handle those rumors:

1. Make a joke out of it: As soon as you post a picture to Instagram with an over-sized shirt or loose dress, your followers might think that you are pregnant. This can cause frustration and anxiety, but have some fun with their assumptions. Create a video to post online talking about the allegations, and then tell them you're pregnant with a food baby.

2. Answer the question head on: Nothing is better than the truth, right? Tell your friends, family members, and social media that you will not be having a baby. If you let them know the truth from the source, they will no longer question it.

3. Leave it to time: Gossip does pass and people do figure out the truth on their own. If you're not a person that likes confrontation or a million questions, then you don't have to answer. Your silence (and lack of a continuously growing belly) will speak volumes.
