Cupid's Advice:

While Brown and Bersten are adamant that they are just friends, there are still many benefits of dating someone who is similar to yourself. Cupid has some relationship advice to help you determine the benefits of dating someone who is similar to you:

1. You like (and dislike) the same things: Every relationship, whether romantic or platonic, is based on the foundation that you have something in common. However, when you're dating someone who is similar to yourself you go beyond just a few common interests. You both tend to like and dislike the same things which can make decision-making much easier.

2. You can be yourself around them: There are few things worse than having to pretend that you're someone you're not. Luckily, if you and your partner are similar then there is no need to hide who you truly are. Being in a relationship with someone who is just like yourself allows you to be more free and open.

3. You finish each other's...: Sandwiches! Just kidding, sentences! More times than not, you two will be on the same page so when an issue arises you and your partner are more likely to solve the issue than argue about how to solve the issue. Besides making disagreements less frequent, being on the same page as your partner allows you to make wonderful and spontaneous memories.
