Cupid's Advice:

Planning a wedding can be just as stressful as the engagement period. It can become stressful waiting for the big date to come and planning your life together. However, there are some advantages to getting to the altar earlier. Cupid has some advice on how a short engagement could be the way to go:

- 1. Less time to wait: Having a short engagement will give you the opportunity to start your life together earlier. You'll have less time to plan an extravagant wedding, but getting it over and done with can start your journey to married life. Try to make the wedding short and sweet. Invite guests that are close to both of you. Keep the guest list concise. This will help with planning a wedding in less than six months.

2. Less expensive: Weddings can be very expensive, especially if you want your day to be magical. Essentials like flowers, musicians, a DJ, and food can be very pricey for both parties. When you have less time to plan something, you'll be forced to make some cuts and compromises. You can take the extra money and use it toward a house, honeymoon, investments, or for your future child together.

3. Your story will begin: Who wants to read a story with a long introduction? It will make you less excited to get to the first chapter. Jumping straight to the point and getting married will help you build a stronger bond. You already know what your partner is like, but going through this new cycle together will teach you more about them. You don't have to do it within two or three months. Try to make it less than a year. Your story will have the longer chapters with more details, laughter, and love to share.
