Cupid's Advice:

It's not always easy to combat a rumor that is spreading around especially with social media involved. The best way to respond to rumor is to do it the best way that is comfortable with you. Don't overly apologize or constantly update your posts with the same thing about what happened, rather, find the way that will get straight to the point and cannot be misconstrued. Cupid has some advice on some ways you can address a rumor:

1. Make a post on social media: This is the fastest and easiest way to get what every you need to say out there. There needs to be precaution with this. Sometimes when we say things we don't actually mean what we say. Make an outline of what you're going to say first before you post it. Read it to a few close friends and get their reaction. This will help assure that the message you're releasing is taken the right way without being misunderstood.

2. Clarify in a public setting: Now, if this is something that happened around your family and friends this might be the best option. You have most of the people you want to address there and it will be easier for you to talk about the situation. Don't get mad if follow questions are asked. This is kind of the most merry compared to a press conference. Make sure that you're not feeling pressured to talk fully about the situation if you are not ready. Create a line to make people aware that you are no longer interested in answering any of their questions.

3. Silence sometimes his best response: If you're not a person that likes public confrontation or people invading into your personal life then you might want to keep your mouth shut. However, if directly affects your close family or friends email and talk to them in a private setting regarding what had happened. Just continue to dodge the questions asked and professional way.
