Cupid's Advice:

Some might not think theme parks can be a romantic date location, but there's something about the smell of fried food, goofing off with one another on the attractions, and being surrounded by others who are having just as good a time as you that can actually bring you and your partner closer. Especially if your relationship is fresh, amusement parks are the perfect way to ease into more comfortable territory with one another. If you're looking for more casual places to share some romance, don't worry! Cupid has some relationship advice on how theme parks like Disneyland can bring about love:

1. Ferris wheels are always romantic: Almost every amusement park has some sort of Ferris wheel. A large contraption where you're suspended high up in the air doesn't seem like it would bring sparks, but it can. Being up there with your partner overlooking the skyline is romantic because you're trusting yourself in the hands of your significant other. Besides, sharing a kiss or two at the top is cute and it can feel just like the movies.

2. You can laugh together: If there's one thing that you'll find taking a date to an amusement park it's that you and your partner will be laughing with one another all day. Finding someone that you can goof around with and be comfortable in your own skin is important to every relationship, and if you get along well in this environment, it is pretty telling. Also, the more you laugh around someone the quicker your bond will grow.

3. Firework shows: Like Disneyland, most of these parks have some sort of firework display at the end of every night. The colors lighting up the sky and the surreal vision of the show can stir romance between you and your partner. Hold each other tight as you gaze up at the attraction or even kiss at the fireworks' finale. It's the perfect way to end the night.
