Cupid's Advice:

Acknowledging that your relationship is over can be difficult, but moving on to something healthier and happier is worth it. Cupid has some advice for you on when to know when its really over:

1. Your mental health is suffering: If you aren't feeling like yourself anymore, and the relationship is the root cause, it's time to move on. Letting your mental health suffer for the sake of another person isn't healthy or positive. Love the life you live, with confidence and strength!

2. The spark is gone: When your relationship feels more like a friendship, then maybe it's become just that. Relationships evolve over time, sometimes deepening that initial romantic connection and other times shifting into a platonic partnership of comfortability. Recognize this shift and have an honest conversation with your partner. It's not fair to either of you, staying in a romantic relationship that you aren't 100% invested in.

3. The cons outweighs the pros: If you feel like you're fighting about minor or meaningless issues and everything has become a challenge, it's time to analyze your relationship.

When you're both unhappy, it can lead to small things becoming big things. Once the bad times start to overpower the good, it's time to go.
