In celebrity couple news, this new duo is happy and quarantining together. What are some ways to know you're ready for a serious relationship with your new partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes finding the one can be a challenging journey. If you're unsure about seriously committing to a new partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You see a future: If you look at your new partner and can envision a life together, this person is worth making a commitment to. Building a future with someone is a special part of life that every couple wants to commit to, but finding the right person can be a challenge. Be sure you are moving at your own pace and taking things slow, as these next steps will be huge for your relationship.

2. The feelings are there: Before you commit to a new partner, be sure that you feel ready. If you are undeniably physically attracted to this person, make sure you are emotionally there as well. Don't be afraid to ask for open and transparent communication from your partner about where they stand with their feelings. You both want to be on the same page so your relationship can flourish in a natural and healthy way.

3. You've got babies on the brain: If you have baby fever like never before, and keep viewing this person as a potential father for your child, maybe that's a sign he is worth committing to. Seeing this person in that light should speak a lot to their values, morals, and what they care about in life. If you are both on the same page with your feelings towards each other, take this next step and commit. You never know where it can lead, so go into it confidently and put your best foot forward.
