Cupid's Advice:

Becoming a parent is a joyous and momentous occasion that many look forward to in their lives. If you're looking for ways to prepare for this next step, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Make sure you're ready: The first step in gauging your preparedness for pregnancy is checking in with yourself. Taking care of your mental and emotional health is crucial before having a child. If you feel ready to become a parent and prepared for all of the wonderful yet challenging years ahead, then go for it. For those not quite there yet, take your time. This is not something to rush into! Many women invested in their careers or still exploring their lives have frozen their eggs, so do some research if you feel that might be an option for you.

2. Financially prepare: Babies are expensive! During your pregnancy planning, be sure that you are taking a realistic look at your finances. You want to feel comfortable and supported while going through this process, so be sure to save. Once your baby is born, consider opening an education fund for them. As they grow up, continue putting money into the account so once college rolls around you will all be ready!

3. You have support: It's important that while you are going through this exciting time, you have built a support network. Whether that is through your partner, friends, or family, be sure that you have people to lean on during this process. Having loved ones to turn to and be by your side is definitely a key part of preparing for a child.
