Cupid's Advice:

The end of a long-term relationship marks a new chapter of your life. It doesn't matter who initiated the break-up; both parties will have to deal with heartbreak. If you're unsure of how to move forward, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Allow yourself to grieve: This is your chance to accept your new reality without your ex. You have the time to reflect on the relationship and your own actions, which will allow you to move on. This is your time to establish a new routine without your ex and untangle them from your life.

2. Focus on yourself: Long-term relationships often have you focusing more on "we" than on "me." This is your chance to do things that make you happy. This could be finding a new hobby, going out to your favorite places, or spending more time with people who support you.
