By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Gwen Stefani and Blake Shelton are waiting until after the COVID-19 pandemic ends to tie the knot. The celebrity couple has been secretive about their wedding plans, leaving fans in the dark about their engagement. A source close to the couple told UsMagazine.com that Stefani had begun the process to annul her previous marriage in the Catholic church in March of last year. However, the current global crisis has “changed Gwen’s feelings about getting the annulment and getting married.” Now Stefani and Shelton’s celebrity wedding will take place after social distancing restrictions are lifted. “She didn’t wait this long to get married with family watching on Zoom,” the source reveals.

In celebrity wedding news, Gwen and Blake want to take the next step in their relationship and tie the knot, but they want to wait until after the pandemic. What are some ways to have a special wedding celebration during the pandemic?

Cupid’s Advice:

Quarantine has put a halt to a lot of weddings. Whether you pushed back your ceremony or decided to get married without the reception (for now), you'll still want to do something special. Whether you want to celebrate your actual marriage or your would-have-been wedding date, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Virtual reception: While a Zoom-sponsored wedding reception may not have been your first choice, being able to talk to your closest friends is worth it. Get dressed up and make speeches with your wedding party and others close to you!

2. Socially-distant car parade: One way to celebrate your special day is to have your close friends and family who live locally drive by your house. Despite the distance, your loved ones will be able to celebrate your wedding in person from inside their cars.

3. Stay-at-home celebration: At the end of the day, your wedding is about you and your partner. Take this chance to have a romantic stay-at-home date with your new spouse. You could dress you and make a fancy dinner or you could get comfy and reminiscence on your relationship.
