Cupid's Advice

Double dates or couple getaways can be unpredictable and you don't always know what to expect. If you are considering going on a double date or a couple getaway and you're not sure if you should go, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. It's good to have someone to relate to: Couples usually go through similar if not the same issues that you and your partner have. Spending time with another couple gives you a chance to relate to each others issues. Once you know that other couples struggle with the same thing that you struggle with in your relationship, it becomes less of an issue to know that you guys aren't the only ones.

2. Get to know the people in your partners life: Double dating or couple getaways is a great way to meet your partners family and friends without it being awkward. Get to know the people that your partner is around when they're not with you.

3. See your partner in a different light: For the most part you see your partner when you both are alone. Seeing how your partner acts and gets along with other couples is an indication of they act around other people that's not you. Learn how your partner acts around you vs. how they are around other people. Learning each other behaviors and actions will make you both closer as a couple.
