Cupid's Advice:

The end of a relationship is always hard. You need time to grieve no matter how it ended. It's also important not to let the grief be the only thing you feel. If you're having a hard time feeling positive after your breakup, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Reconnect with friends: It's easy to distance yourself from your friends during your relationship, but it's important to spend time with them after a breakup. Your close friends are there for you and this is when you need them most. If they're long-distance friends, schedule times to call them!

2. Fall in love with your hobbies: Some of your free time will be spent being upset about your breakup and that's okay. Try spending more of that time getting back into hobbies you may have stopped doing during your relationship. This is your time to experiment with new activities, too!

3. Say yes to new experiences: Accept every social invitation you have. Spend a night out with friends or have lunch with your family. Even if it doesn't feel genuine at the beginning, you'll be glad you spent time with people you care about instead of holing up and watching Netflix again.
