In celebrity break-up news, Sofia Richie unfollowed her ex Scott Disick on social media as he was spotted with a new woman. What are some steps you can take to get over your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter how amicable the situation may have been, breaking up with your partner and beginning the process of getting over them can be challenging. If you are looking for some steps to take to get over your ex, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Remove them from your feed: It's hard to get over someone if you are constantly aware of what they're doing or who they're with. By limiting how much of the other person you see on social media, you will stop yourself from seeing anything you are not ready for. Whether it is muting, unfollowing, or blocking, there are many different options to limit your exposure to your ex.

2. Take down your posts: While removing them from your feed is helpful, so is taking down whatever posts you have of the relationship on your account. It may not be necessary to completely delete these posts, but archiving them or setting them as private is a good way to show you're moving on. Once you start conveying to other people that you are past the relationship, you will begin to believe it yourself.

3. Limit other forms of communication: Depending on the situation, it may not be possible to cut off all communication right away. Be sure to set boundaries between you and your ex to establish how much communication you are comfortable with. These boundaries can always be lessened or strengthened as the situation changes.
