In celebrity couple news, Jeff Dye hasn't officially confirmed his relationship with Kristin Cavallari, but he seemingly referenced it in a recent Instagram post. What are some reasons to keep your relationship under wraps at first?

Cupid's Advice:

Just because you see your friends and family releasing details about their relationship does not mean you are obligated to do the same thing. If you are looking for some reasons to keep your relationship under wraps at first, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You're just starting out: When you are just beginning a new relationship and aren't sure where it's going, you may wish to keep the details to yourself. There is no shame in waiting a few weeks or months before sharing your relationship with others, especially if you are waiting to see if you're going to be with this person long-term.

2. Keeping it casual: If you and your current partner are just looking to keep things casual, then there may be no reason to post about it. You may not want to overshare about this relationship if you do not see yourself dating this person long-term, or are still open to meeting other people.

3. You want privacy: Some people simply want privacy in a relationship and do not wish to make all the details public. Whether you went through a public break-up in the past or simply do not want to answer endless questions about your new partner, seeking privacy is an understandable reason for keeping things under wraps.
