By Nicole Maher

In the latest celebrity news, Jacob Elordi and Kaia Gerber have just made their relationship official in public. According to EOnline.com, Elordi and Gerber were spotted kissing while running errands together in Los Angeles. The celebrity couple caught the attention of their fans back in September when they were seen at dinner together, and the rumors continued as they were seen holding hands while walking through a New York City market.

In celebrity couple news, Jacob and Kaia have gone public with their relationship. What are some subtle ways to confirm your new relationship to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

While you are undoubtedly excited about your new relationship, you may not be the type of person who wants to formally announce it to everyone. If you are looking for some subtle ways to confirm your new relationship to family and friends, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Ask for a plus one: A great way to subtly announce that you and your partner have gotten more serious is to ask if you can bring them as a plus-one to an event. This will show your friends and family your relationship is growing as you are allowing for it to become more public.

2. Call it a date: Switching up the language is another subtle way of showing the growth of your relationship. If you have been telling your family and friends that you are “hanging out” with your current partner on Friday night, now may be the time to switch the phrasing to “going on a date.” This will let them know that things have gotten more serious and leave them wanting to know more details!

3. Step up the PDA: Just as Eloridi and Gerber did, stepping up the PDA is a subtle way of making your relationship official. By openly giving your partner a kiss hello, or holding their hand throughout the day, it will let you family and friends know that the two of you are officially together without you needing to outwardly say it.
