Cupid's Advice

When gossip and rumors are circulating about your relationship, they can put a major damper on the excitement of being in love. If you're looking for ways to keep outside chatter about your relationship from affecting you, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Address it: The most direct way to handle gossip regarding your relationship is to address it directly. This may mean confronting those spreading rumors in person, or even acknowledging haters online. While this may be an intense way of stopping the noise surrounding your relationship, it will definitely make it clear that you want the chatter to stop.

2. Go private: Another way to avoid letting the negative rumors about your relationship affect you is to make your relationship less public. It will be extremely difficult for people to comment on and critique your relationship if they don't know anything about it. Try to limit how much you express your relationship on social media and start to enjoy your time with just your partner.

3. Switch your focus: The best way to stop chatter surrounding your relationship from affecting you is to switch your focus to what really matters. Instead of listening or responding to the rumors and gossip, try focusing on your partner and your relationship instead. Don't spend your time caught up in what other people are thinking, and channel that effort towards nurturing your relationship.
