Is too much texting in a relationship impersonal?

Cupid's Advice:

Texting has become one of the most popular forms of communication. However, is it okay to text in a relationship? Here are a few things to consider:

1. Your texts: Sending heartfelt messages like, “I hope you have a great day,” or “Good luck!” is perfectly acceptable.

Messages like “c u l8r” and “kk” can put a strain on your relationship. Texting is useful because it’s quick and efficient, but be sure to spend a little more time typing your sincere messages.

2. Your reasons for texting: Having a quick conversation with your partner via text messaging is fine. However, if texting has come to replace more serious phone calls or face-to-face bonding time with your partner, then you should be wary.

3. Your relationship’s strength: If you and your partner text constantly, and your relationship doesn’t suffer because of it, then all the more power to you. Find a balance that works for your relationship.
