

Prince Harry and Chelsy Davy Party All Night Post-Wedding

We learned after Friday's royal wedding celebrations that sparks are still flying between Prince Harry and Chelsy Davy. The on-and-off couple since 2004 took part in post-wedding festivities back at the Goring Hotel with Prince William and Kate Middleton. Sources saw them leaving together at 6 a.m. "You could tell they were an item," one told UsMagazine.com. "They were acting like a couple and kissed in front of everyone." Prince Harry took part in all of the day's wedding festivities before the rendezvous, making the day as special for his brother as possible. One partygoer described Harry as "determined to put on an amazing party for his brother," saying he spent months "organizing the whole thing and thinking up jokey things that he can do for his brother. He [wanted] to give his brother and his new bride the party of the century!"

How do you know when you're ready to commit?

Cupid's Advice:

Are you ready to have a relationship, or should you continue flying free? Cupid has some tips to figuring out your current love situation:

- 1. Take a moment to imagine: If you can't imagine having a boyfriend or girlfriend, then you need more time to prepare. Picture yourself in a relationship, and go with your gut feeling.
- 2. Go for it if you're interested: You may be pondering the relationship idea because there's someone you're currently interested in. If your feelings are strong enough, dive in! You never know when you'll get another opportunity.
- 3. You're over your past loves: Make sure you're over your past relationships before you jump into something new. In order to move on, you have to feel resolved about your exes.
