

Sheryl Crow Has A New Boyfriend

Sheryl Crow is back on the dating scene! In fact, she's been recently spotted dating fellow musician, Doyle Bramhall II, who plays in her tour band and also co-produced her most recent album, 100 Miles from Memphis. According to People, the two have known each other for quite some time. Their friendship budded into romance as the two began to spend a lot of time together on and off tour. The singer is the proud mother of two young sons. She says that she and her new man have a great foundation having known each other for 15 years, but she's currently keeping the relationship friend-based around the kids.

How do you turn a good friendship into a romantic relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Some of the most successful relationships started out as friendships. If you start having feelings for a friend, here are some ways to build on that:

1. Hang out alone: Romance is most likely to begin when you're alone together rather than in a large group. With some alone time, you can get to know each other on a whole new level.

2. Drop hints: Send a flirty look their way when you get the chance. A wink is also sufficient if you're trying to let on that you want something more than just friendship.

3. Enjoy doing what you always have: Just because your relationship is growing, it doesn't mean that you can't enjoy the activities you always have as friends.
