Cupid's Advice:

1. I remember that!: Memories can often lead to great conversation, especially if they're hilarious. Play a game of "who has the funniest memory?", in which each of you brings up something humorous that happened in the past with your significant other. Just try not to make it too embarrassing!

2. Ready...set...go: Competition can be a great way to spend a double date. Go to a miniature golf course or jump into some go-carts. Or, even take a bartending class as couples together, and see which pair of you can make the best cocktail when all is said and done.

3. Get in the car: Take your convertible for a spin, and if you don't have one, borrow or rent one! Driving at a cool speed with the wind blowing through your hair good music blasting is such a pleasure.
