

Kim Kardashian Files for Divorce From Kris Humphries

After just 72 days of marriage, Kim Kardashian and Kris Humphries are getting a divorce. According to People, Kardashian filed for divorce on Monday. The fashion forward reality star recently denied rumors that her marriage was on the rocks. Now, she's listed the reason for the divorce as the Hollywood cliché, "irreconcilable differences." So why the breakup? A source says that the couple couldn't take the demands of being a reality TV couple. Producer Ryan Seacrest announced on his show that Kardashian got caught up in all that was going on.

How do you keep from getting caught up in the fantasy of a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

1. Take it slow: If your relationship is moving fast, take the time to stop and reevaluate. Don't rush into a marriage or committed relationship.

2. Too good to be true: If you and your partner are madly in love and haven't had any problems, this relationship could be too good to be true. The truth is, if it feels that way, chances are it is. A little disagreement in a relationship can be a good thing.

3. Take some time off: Being around someone all the time can cloud up your perspective. It's okay to take some time away from each other once in a while, whether that means going out with friends or spending weekends apart. You'll come back refreshed and missing your mate.
