What are some ways to include your children in date night?

Cupid's Advice:

If you have children, it can be difficult to balance time with your spouse and time with your children. Here are some ways to spend time with both:

1. Go somewhere kid-friendly: Children aren't always going to flourish in certain environments, especially if they're younger. If you have a young child, a romantic movie and an expensive dinner aren't exactly fun for them. An ice cream date at the park, or a nice taco dinner like Pink and Carey Hart would be perfect.

2. Relive your childhood: Just because a place may seem more typical for a child to enjoy doesn't mean it's only for them. Places like amusement parks or miniature golf courses can be fun for both children and adults.

3. Keep it simple: There's no rule saying that date night has to be complicated or away from home. Plan a dinner date at home by having the kids eat earlier and then arranging for take-out. You can also let the kids suggest a date, as they'll get a kick out of it, and you'll be sure to have no complaints from them later.
