What are some things to consider when you're deciding when to have children?

Cupid's Advice:

Having kids is a big decision, and it's not one that should be taken lightly. If possible, think through all of the negatives and positives before settling on a decision. Here are some things to consider:

1. Money: A baby costs money. There's baby supplies, nursery items and even hospital costs. Making sure you can afford to have a baby and that you have reliable income to raise your child is important.

2. Strong relationship: Is your relationship or marriage strong enough to withstand the stress of having a child? As long as you and your partner are completely committed to having kids, there shouldn't be negative affects on your relationship.

3. Stable home: Do you like to travel or are you more apt to stay in one place? A stable home is crucial to raising a child in a healthy environment.
