Cupid's Advice:

Who says you can't be friends after a breakup? Some people may think it's best to forget about your ex, but here are a few benefits to staying on good terms with your old flame:

1. Friends with benefits: Everyone has their wants, but you can't get them from everywhere. Depending on the terms of the split, it may be convenient for you to get what you want from your ex while looking for something new. Be careful not to get confused in the process.

2. Don't burn bridges: If your relationship ended on good terms, try to keep it that way. You never know who you may need in the future to talk to when you could use a quick "cheer-me-up."

3. Patch it up: Maybe your breakup didn't end so well. But, reaching out to your ex may be just what you need to help you move on. Most of the time, when you receive closure from a past relationship, it makes it a lot easier to be cool with your former love.
