How do you know when your relationship is ready for kids?

Cupid’s Advice:

“First comes love, then comes marriage, then comes the baby in the baby carriage.” That’s how the saying goes, but how do you know when it’s time to have children? Starting a family is the next big step after tying the knot in your relationship. Cupid has some tips:

1. Enjoy each other first: The first few years of your marriage should be just about you and your lover. Take romantic vacations to tropical locations, surprise each other with “just because” gifts and go on spontaneous dates and trips. It’s definitely possible to do this with kids, but it may not be as easy.

2. Practice makes perfect: Before having a child, babysit for a family member or a friend to get an idea of what to expect if you haven’t been around kids in a long time. For the animal-loving couple, getting a dog wouldn’t be a bad choice as this can somewhat prepare you for the future as well.

3. You’re both ready: When you communicate to your spouse that you’re ready to have children and they agree, then you can anxiously start planning for offspring.
