What are three strong dinner date conversational points?

Cupid's Advice:

Being nervous about a dinner date is perfectly normal.

Conversation can be a serious challenge when your nerves have the best of you. Here are some great go-to points to discuss:

1. Education: Discussing your college life can be a great way to get to know someone. Uncovering that your date was a music major may make you 10 times more interested. Sharing his experiences can give you a new outlook, as well as a great way to get to know one another.

2. Work: Knowing what your new man does for a living is a deal changer. However, don't let work steer the entire conversation, as it would get boring very quickly. Bring up how much you enjoy your job as a nurse, but don't give any gruesome emergency rooms horror stories.

3. Hobbies: Talking about what you love to do in your spare time is the number one way to get to know someone. Maybe you both enjoy skiing, or biking. Either way, once you discover what you have in common, your conversation will steer itself in the right direction.
