n last Monday's all new episode of The Bachelor, Courtney Robertson realized that Ben Flajnik was having his doubts about her because of the way she's been acting with the other girls. Robertson was quick to pull Flajnik for some one-on-one time in Switzerland to explain herself. In high hopes of gaining his full trust back, she desperately told him, "I'd say something and they'd jump on me. I had my guard up." Little does Flajnik know, there's a lot more she said to her cast members that he wouldn't be so happy about.

What do you do if you don't get along with your partner's friends?

Cupid's Advice:

There are times where you just can't get along with your partner's friends, but they have a problem with that. Not sure how to fix this problem? Here are some tips:

1. Give it another shot: Maybe there are certain friends of your significant other's who you don't get along with, but there has to be someone you can manage to have a conversation with. Try not to be close-minded, and try giving his or her friends another chance.

2. Bring a friend with you: Whenever you both go out with a bunch of friends, bring yours along, too. It's much easier to loosen up and be cool when you have your best friends along with you.

3. Have them over your place: If you all get together at your place, you'll feel comfortable and there will be less tension. Also, since it is your pad, their friends will most likely be extra nice to you.
