What do you do if you don't have time for a traditional honeymoon?

Cupid's Advice:

People live busy and hectic lives, and taking time off from work may seem impossible. If you don't have time for a traditional honeymoon, Cupid has some tips to make sure you spend time together as newlyweds:

1. Make time: Everyone is entitled to some rest and relaxation, so plan to take time off from work together, and plan a trip. It might not be right after your wedding, but that doesn't mean that you can't call it a honeymoon.

2. Quick trip: You may not have a week to jet off to somewhere tropical, but you can go on a weekend trip to a destination where you know you'll both have fun. Regardless of where you end up, you'll be able to enjoy spending that time with each other, flaunting your wedding bands.

3. Take time: It's important for newlyweds to enjoy alone time together, especially during the honeymoon stage so don't take it for granted. Set aside one or two nights a week where you turn off your cell phones, put your work away and focus on doing something together whether it's a dinner out or staying in and watching a movie.
