Is being tough a good thing in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It's good to have a backbone, but it's also possible to be too tough in a relationship. Cupid has some tips:

1. Vulnerability: Having the ability to protect yourself from emotional pain in a relationship can be a good quality, but at some point you have to make yourself a little more vulnerable. Bringing down your shield will strengthen your bond as a couple.

2. Protection: If you love each other, you want to protect one another. Men especially like the feeling of being able to appear as a woman's protector or caretaker, so ladies, it's ok to be that damsel in distress from time to time so that your prince charming can take care of you.

3. Strength: You need to have a little toughness within your relationship so you don't get pushed around all the time. As couples become more comfortable with each other, they tend to get bossy or demanding, so keep that tough bone under your skin so you have the strength to stand up for yourself when necessary.
