

Jessica Simpson Insists She's Still Pregnant, Despite Rumors

Jessica Simpson and Eric Johnson are more ready to celebrate the birth of their new baby than anyone else, but it seems that fans have jumped the gun by congratulating her on her new baby girl. According to UsMagazine.com, the star wrote via Twitter, "To everyone who keeps congratulating me on the birth of my baby girl...I'm still pregnant!! Don't believe what you read ladies and gents." Simpson is ready to be a mommy, but the Fashion Star mentor said she's also ready to get back into her high heels because her feet feel homesick!

How do you keep discussion about your pregnancy to a minimum?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancy is a special moment for you and your partner, but it can also be a monumental moment for the people around you. Don't let them be the ones spreading the word about your pregnancy! Cupid has some tips:

1. Demand privacy: Your loved ones are going to want to be as far into your business about the baby as possible, whether they think they're helping or are just there to get the latest gossip, but you need to demand your privacy and tell them when they need to back off.

2. Be discrete: People love being in-the-know. To satisfy the nosey-nellies and the gossip queens, tell them just enough, but not too much. Hopefully, this way they get enough information to keep them occupied for a little while.

3. Close range: Only discuss important aspects of your pregnancy with the people with whom you are closest. This may limit discussions to your partner, the to-be-grandparents, and maybe your closest friends. This way, you know you can trust these people with your private information and don't have to fear information leaking out.
