How do you prepare to meet your partner's family for the first time?

Cupid's Advice:

A new and important step in your relationship is meeting each other's family. Family has a lot to do with who a person is and how they grew up. So how do you prepare for such a step? Cupid has some advice:

1. Communicate with the family beforehand: You want to have built some sort of relationship with at least one of the family members beforehand, to get a feel for how they are. It'll relieve some of the stress before you meet them all.

2. Get background info: Ask your partner about their family. You don't want to be completely clueless about the entire family until you meet them. Plus, they'll probably be impressed that you know so much about them already.

3. Invite them over: If you're the host, you have time to give a good first impression. The fact that you invited them all over to begin with is already a good first step.
