How do you compromise with your partner on baby names?

Cupid's Advice:

Some of the arguments you might face when you have a child is picking the baby's name. A couple can have very different opinions on what names they like, so you both need to compromise. Here are some ways to do so:

1. Choose the name that has more sentimental meaning: If one of you chooses a name after someone in the family, and it has a dear meaning to them, it's probably best to let them win this one. It will probably mean a lot more to them, then if you were to pick a name you found in a baby book and really liked.

2. Utilize the middle name: If you both have completely different choices for the name of your baby, you don't need to choose just one. Make one of the choices the baby's middle name, and one of them the first name.

3. You plan to have more babies: If you and your partner know you plan to have more babies, then ease up with choosing the name for one. There's always the next one.
