

'Snow White and the Huntsman' is a Blockbuster Rooted in Romance

By Matthew Dougherty

Yeah, yeah, yeah, it looks like an action movie, but you and your youth know that any story about Snow White must be centered on romance. The film actually focuses on a love triangle between Snow White, the Huntsman and Snow White's childhood love, Prince William. The evil queen orders The Huntsman to kill Snow White, but he takes pity on her and decides to help her defeat the queen. But who will Snow White choose? The Huntsman or the safety of the prince? Starring Twilight's Kristen Stewart as Snow White, this is likely to be one of the highlights of the summer:

Do you have two people vying for your affections? Here are some tips on how to handle the situation:

In Snow White and the Huntsman, Snow White has two men for which she has feelings. These choices can be extremely difficult in life as two people usually offer completely different things. Here is how you can decide which one is “fairest of them all”:

1. Consult the people who know you best: Sometimes our friends and family know what is good for us more than we do. Perhaps they can point you in the right direction.

2. Think of the future: What is your future with each of these people? Does one look a lot brighter than the others? If so, then you have your answer.

3. Know yourself: Look at both people and simply figure out who makes you happiest. You have to determine who is best for you. If you don't do this, you could end up regretting your decision for the rest of your life.
