

Shenae Grimes Exchanges PDA with Josh Beech at Express Grand Opening

The sweet and sexy Shenae Grimes has plenty of love to go around, even when she isn't playing her relatively good-girl role on 90210. The young actress traveled to Vancouver last week with model boyfriend Josh Beech for the grand opening of the Express store on July 12, where they didn't hide any affection. As the two headed back to the states, the 22-year old snagged a kiss from her new man at the Vancouver International Airport. Two days later, the couple visited Hollywood nightclub Beacher's Madhouse, where their PDA went into overtime after their short trip together. A source tells UsMagazine.com that Grimes was "dancing very seductively" with Beech while he "only had eyes for Shenae." Looks like the two are off to a great start.

What are some ways to make your partner feel special?

Cupid's Advice:

Making your significant other feel special is what a relationship is all about. If your partner feels special, your relationship will thrive. Here are some great ways to show your love just how special they are:

1. One-on-one time: Spending quality time together with your partner is the best way to show you care about your partner. It shows that you cherish every minute with them and that they are more important to you than anyone else.

2. A surprise: A good surprise shows you were thinking of them enough to take action. Flowers, a fancy dinner or even a small gift is more than enough to warm their heart.

3. Write a song or poem: Show your partner how much they mean by writing a poem or song for them. This is one of the sweetest gestures possible, because most people put what's really in their heart into their songs and poems.
