

Johnny Depp and Vanessa Paradis Hold Hands at Reunion with Kids

It's been one month since couple Johnny Depp and Vanessa Paradis have called it quits on their 14-year relationship, and the love might not have gone all away. The ex couple met up with their two children Lily-Rose and Jack in their mansion in the South of France. A source for UsMagazine.com claims, "They were relieved they got along well." The two reportedly even held hands at one point. Is the love still there or can they remain friends? Depp, 49, is still reportedly seeing Amber Heard, but maybe the tables have turned and he is trying to amend his past relationship with Paradis.

Cupid's Advice:

The end of a relationship can either end very badly or in a beautiful friendship. Here are some ways to maintain a good relationship after a breakup:

1. Have friendly day dates: If you have been with someone for a long time and then break up, it's normal to still maintain some sort of friendly relationship. Although you should probably avoid romantic night time dates, getting together every once in a while for lunch to catch up can be good for both of you.

2. Help each other out: It's normal to want to make sure that your ex is doing well. Check up on them every once in a while and see if they need anything. This is especially important when you two have children with one another.

3. Be supportive: Whether your ex is dating someone else or just starting a new job, show your support. You were a big aspect in their life at one point, and your support will mean a lot more than you may think.
