How do you know if your partner is trustworthy?

Cupid's Advice:

Before you can fully put your trust in someone, it's important that they prove they deserve it. Don't just assume your partner is honest because they say they are. Cupid has some tips:

1. Open your eyes: A lot of the time we get too caught up with our feelings for someone that we miss the signs that could have warned us to be careful. When you're in love, you're typically blinded by some of the more negative attributes of your partner.

2. Their words match their actions: If you put your trust in someone that person needs to be reliable and genuine. This means that when your loved one says that he is going to do something, it gets done – no excuses. He or she respects you, your time and your feelings.

3. They have morals: A person who has integrity is probably going to be more dependable than someone with no moral values. Someone who holds responsibility and honesty to a high standard will also hold you to those standards and will be less inclined to let you down.
