How do you keep your wedding under the radar?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're not one for over-the-top weddings and have a reason to keep your wedding under-wraps, doing so can be difficult. Here are some ways to keep your wedding intimate, private and known only to those that matter:

1. Do not reveal the location until the day of: If you want to keep your wedding under the radar, spilling the location and venue is a mistake. Keep everyone guessing by telling them a different location all the time, or do not tell them a location at all. On your actual wedding day, send out a mass text or email telling your guests where to meet and what to wear, and you don't even have to tell them it's for a wedding.

2. Do not brag about the details: It's natural to get excited for your wedding day and want the world to be a little jealous! But, if you want to keep the wedding a secret, telling people the details from your wedding dress to the ceremony's location will allow everyone to know about it and potentially show up. Just remember that the only thing that matters on your wedding day is the love between you and your partner; that might help you keep your mouth zipped.

3. Act nonchalantly about your wedding day: If you act like your wedding day is nothing special, people will stop questioning you about it or even forget about it all together. That way, the wedding will be secretive and then afterward you can talk and brag about it all you want.
