What are some ways to prepare your relationship for a baby?

Cupid's Advice:

The first thing to be sure of when you and your partner are having a child is that you're ready. You should be at the happiest and strongest point in your relationship in order to give this new life everything you both have.

1. Prepare together: Things can easily get frustrating if one partner is putting more care and concern into the baby on the way than the other. You both should be reading the baby books, helping one another out and getting the nursery ready together. It's an exciting time for each of you so take a trip to Babies R' Us together instead of going out on solo missions.

2. You know each other inside and out: With a baby on the way it's important to know every detail about one another. Know what makes your partner tick and what always proves to get your love out of a bad mood. These small details about one another will help you both resolve issues quicker or at best, keep fights from happening at all.

3. Trust: Having complete trust in your partner is what's going to help you both the most when it's time for the baby to come. You are one another's support system and if you each have total and complete faith in one another then you know that you're going to give this child the most amazing life together.
