Hollywood couple Jolie and Pitt may have finally picked a celebrity wedding date. What are some ways to choose your wedding date?

Cupid's Advice:

Setting a date can be an extremely stressful time for any couple about to be married. Cupid has some relationship and love advice about how to start thinking about a date for your wedding:

1. Start with a season: Is there one season that has always called out to you? Maybe you love the sunshine and beaches associated with summer, or maybe the pristine white of snow is more your style. Think about what would match your dream dress and your venue choices. By narrowing your choices down to a particular time of year, you can eliminate most of the year and have a much smaller list of dates to choose from.

2. Look at your calendar: While weddings are one of the most important events of the season, there are some other important events that cannot be rescheduled. Make sure you're planning your wedding for a downtime for your family. If you want everyone to be able to attend, keep in mind their schedules when picking a date.

3. Pick a day that stands out to you: Maybe you and your partner have a special joke related to a certain date, like the first day you kissed, the day of your first date, or some equally important milestone in your relationship. Picking a date that has importance to you, whether you guests know it or not, is another way to make your day even more special than it already is sure to be.
