We've all been there: it's your first date with your tall, dark and handsome crush from the accounting department. You want to look perfect for this guy and have picked out your favorite date outfit to wear to a movie in the city.

Unfortunately, as you're getting ready for the night, it begins to downpour outside. You want to make a good impression for your new man but can't see yourself trekking through puddles in 3 inch open-toe heels. Clunky old rain boots aren't an option either. Luckily, the new Laguna boot from Ahnu can save your date night from being a fashion disaster and keep your feet dry and warm, no matter what the weather brings.

The Laguna puts a modern spin on your average rain boot. Rather than your typical boxy slab of rubber, these patent leather boots come in a streamlined shape that lean less towards puddle-jumping in the schoolyard and more towards walking through the water in the city. Wear them on a rainy date or even just on a romantic stroll with your sweetheart after a storm.

The boots are not only waterproof for practicality, but they also come in three wonderful colors for the fashion-minded bunch: Golden Brown, Black and Wine Tasting. Plus, the front laces help you secure the boots and keep you extra comfortable – and the side zipper provides an easy on/off for when you get home.

Now is the perfect time to try them out before the wet weather begins. Ahnu is giving away a pair of Laguna boots to one lucky CupidsPulse.com reader! Enter the giveaway below and never worry about the weather ruining your romantic night again.
