How do you know when it's time to go public in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Ready to tell the world about your new beau? Here are some tips on when you know it's time to go public:

1. You're both committed: When the two of you have decided that you are seriously committed to one another, then you can start to call it a relationship. Make sure that you're looking for the same type of partnership.

2. You want people to know: Some people may prefer to keep their dating lives private and separated from the public eye. It's best to discuss going public with your partner before boasting to the world about your new relationship.

3. Don't go overboard: You don't need to shout your love for your partner from the rooftops. Make sure to know the line between opening up about your new relationship and rubbing it in people's faces.
