

Sources Say Ashton Kutcher 'Always Had a Thing' for Mila Kunis

By Nicole Weintraub

Mila Kunis and Ashton Kutcher are still going strong after five months, according to UsMagazine.com. The once on-screen lovers in the hit television show That 70's Show have been living together in Brooklyn while Kunis films her latest movie. "He always had a thing for her," says a source, calling their feelings toward one another infatuation. Recently, the two have been photographed together around the New York City area from brunch dates to public displays of affection in Central Park. Kutcher, who is currently separated from Demi Moore, and Mila Kunis, who was once engaged to Macaulay

Culkin, seem to have found happiness in each other.

How do you act on a longtime crush?

Cupid's Advice:

We all have crushes; though some may last a mere few weeks while some may last for years. In the case of Kutcher and Kunis, the two have held a torch for one another since their television days. Here are some tips on how to act on that crush:

1. Don't involve others: If your longtime crush currently is in a relationship or is married, then steer clear. Even if they are being flirtatious, it is better to not get involved with someone who is already involved. If someone truly has feelings for you, they will find a way to be with you.

2. Be realistic: If your longtime crush is Johnny Depp, then I would advise you to move on. Is your crush plausible? Does this person live on the other side of the world? Think about the possible problems that you could face if you became involved with this person. Would you be willing to sort through those issues?

3. Make a bold move: The only way you are going to move from the crushing stage to the dating stage is if someone makes a move. Rather than waiting for what may be ages, why don't you speak up and make a move? Flirt; ask them for coffee, anything! You've been crushing this long, don't you think it's about time to do something about it?
